PSA® members and customers will benefit from installation cost savings using Novation Wireless.

Westlake Village, CA, November 15th, 2007 - PSA Security Network has added Novation Wireless Security Systems, LLC as a PSA-Approved vendor, making state-of-the-art wireless access control systems available to PSA member companies.

Bill Bozeman, President and CEO of PSA said, "We are very excited about adding the Novation line to our existing offering. Dealers and Integrators we work with will appreciate the cost savings and ease of installation obtained with using Novation's wireless access control solution," added Bozeman.

Novation CEO and President Joe Maskrey stated, "We are extremely excited to be part of the PSA Security Network and anxious to work with and support PSA member efforts nationwide."

In order to become a PSA-approved vendor, manufacturers must meet several criteria. They must be an established company with a proven, tested product along with quality customer service and technical support.
